

Designated scenic spot of Tokyo

「The Former Kusuo Yasuda House and Garden」 Study Tour Recruitment of participants

With the cooperation of the Japan National Trust (JNT), the Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (JEES) is holding a study tour for international students at the former Kusuo Yasuda House and Garden, a designated scenic spot of Tokyo owned by JNT.

In order to pass on valuable cultural properties to future generations, you will learn about JNT's conservation and utilization efforts as an example of cultural property protection by the private sector. Many of the conservation activities are run by local volunteers, and international students experience conservation activities such as garden cleaning.
